

Birmingham
BlackHistory
PROFILES

Dhani Prem 1904-1975

Dr Dhani Prem was a GP who practiced in Birmingham for 40 years. His other significant contribution was that he became Birmingham's first Asian Labour Councillor for Great Barr in 1946. He considered his medical practice and politics as being complementary to each other and worked tirelessly on immigration issues including against the anti-immigration campaigns of the 1964 General Election.