Dear Sir Wathen

I must address a few words to yourself, to express the sincere & deeply felt regrets of both the King & me at the sudden Death of your excellent wife the Baroness Howe and to assure you that we condole with you most sincerely on this melancholy occasion. We have both lost a true & faithful

Friend whom we highly respected & valued & who will always be regretted by us, who were most sincerely attached to her.
We are most anxious to hear how you are after this melancholy & painful Event &
hope that your health will not suffer from the shock, it must na - turally have given you.
All the Princesses join us in deep regret at
